

Meeting community needs in Oregon. More than 23,000 people of all ages and backgrounds are helping to solve problems and strengthen communities through 100 national service projects across Oregon. Serving with national and community nonprofit organizations, faith-based groups, schools, and local agencies, these citizens tutor and mentor children, coordinate after-school programs, build homes, conduct neighborhood patrols, organize local homeland security efforts, respond to disasters, and recruit and manage volunteers. This year, the Corporation for National and Community Service will provide more than $10,000,000 to support Oregon communities through three major programs:

Oregon Commission for Voluntary Action and Service

J. Duke Shepard, Co-Chair
Oscar Sweeten-Lopez, Co-Chair
Jerry Cohen
Kathleen Cornett
Kevin Cronin
Scott Derickson
Sue Hildick
Marvin Kaiser
Callie Lambarth
Chris Miao
Pam Rechel

Senior Corps: More than 10,000 seniors in Oregon contribute their time and talents in one of three programs: Foster Grandparents, who serve one-on-one with more than 6,000 young people who have special needs; Senior Companions, who help more than 2,500 other seniors live independently in their homes; and RSVP volunteers, who work with more than 1,800 local groups to meet a wide range of community needs, including safety patrols with local police departments, environmental projects, tutoring and mentoring, and responding to natural disasters.

AmeriCorps: This year, more than 800 individuals are serving in Oregon communities as AmeriCorps members. In return, the members receive an education award of up to $4,725 to help pay for college or pay back student loans. To date, more than 3,300 Oregon residents have qualified for education awards totaling more than $13,000,000. Two-thirds of AmeriCorps grants are made by the Oregon Commission for Voluntary Action and Service. National nonprofits, such as the Boys and Girls Clubs of America and Habitat for Humanity, make other assignments. Other members serve in AmeriCorps*VISTA, and AmeriCorps*NCCC (National Civilian Community Corps).

Learn and Serve America: Learn and Serve America provides schools, colleges, and community organizations with grants for service-learning. These grants help make it possible for more than 13,000 Oregon students to meet community needs while improving their civic and academic skills and learning the habits of good citizenship.
